F. Community Relations

- The Community Relations Committee met last Thursday. Trustee Amirhamzeh ran the meeting.
- The Community Relations Committee made progress on Mission and Vision Statement for the Committee
- No new developments on Community Health Fair.

G. Other Committees

- The Board and City will be meeting tomorrow. An update will be given at November's meeting.

XI. New Business

- The board has spent close to 8 million dollars within the budget lines to send Hackensack students to Charter Schools.
- This was placed on the Board by the state therefore they should owe us money since they are extended to the taxpayers to pay for charter schools.
- Do not offer this up as a resolution at this time, the board needs to think about how to discuss reimbursement of almost 8 million dollars.

XII. Public Comment (Individuals may address the Board on Agenda and School Matters of Community Interest for 1 minute)

Opening Session:10:18pm

- Male custodians do an amazing job at schools, wondering if female floaters can be considered as they may give an extra touch to the bathrooms in the schools.

Closing Session: 10:22pm

XII. Board Comments

- Thank you to all the presentations, amazing
- Dallas Pettway, thank you for your courage in bringing up issues with lack of girls sports.

- Thank you to all the schools across the district for the excellent Hispanic Heritage Month celebration as well as all of the activities happening in the last few weeks.
- Happy Diwali to all students and families.
- Congratulations and welcome to Ms. Gonzalez, student representative.
- Congratulations to the new Business Administrator, Dr. Steven Lewis, looking forward to working together.
- Recognize Lindita Agastra, Acting School Business Administrator for going above and beyond.
- Highlight celebrations of this month: Indigenous Day, Hispanic Heritage Month, Italian Heritage Month, Diwali, Heart Health Month, Cancer Awareness Month.
- Hispanic Heritage performances were amazing.
- Everyone have blessed night.
- Happy belated birthday to President Harris.
- Powerwashing the schools- custodians are looking into because of the weather it may need to wait until Spring.
- Every meeting board asks residents and students to come to the microphone, Dallas Pettway and mother have done that.
- Mr. Whiting is very helpful and will get the job done on girls sports.
- Acknowledgement of Lindita and Ms. Parchment's birthday.
- Hackensack Rowing program- no idea it existed.
- Doesn't see fear of speaking in public- did a great job.
- Finance background, can see the numbers but knows the students are number one.
- Learned valuable skills from Hackensack coaches.
- Wishing everyone a safe trip home.
- Loved how the history and culture was presented in Hispanic Heritage Month.
- Busy with limited time but has been a productive meeting.
- Glad Ms. Pathway voiced her concern of wanting to play sports and play with the people of the same gender.
- NWACP will be honoring two Hackensack educators, if you have the opportunity to go and support, go.
- A lot of the board members will be attending this Gala.
- Next week the board and central staff will be attending the NJSBA convention.
- Thank you to the Board Attorney for the time and energy he puts to the board.

XIV. Adjournment:

Trustee Pringle motioned to adjourn the meeting at 10:41pm, seconded by Trustee Stein.
